SHOW CAUSE ORDER

Before the Court is Petitioner Matthew Jackson's 28 U.S.C. § 2241 Habeas Corpus Petition. Petitioner alleges he is wrongfully accused of aggravated robbery and falsely imprisoned in the Bexar County Adult Detention Center. He contends the State lacks probable cause to continue holding him, and he seeks his immediate release.

A habeas corpus petition may not proceed until the petitioner has paid the $5.00 filing fee or the petitioner is granted leave to proceed in forma pauperis (IFP). Petitioner has neither paid the filing fee nor filed an IFP application.

In addition, a petitioner must exhaust his state court remedies before proceeding in federal court. There is no record the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals has considered an application for habeas corpus relief from Petitioner in state court.

It is therefore ORDERED that Petitioner shall within thirty (30) days pay the filing fee or submit a current application to proceed IFP (which must be accompanied by a current institutional trust fund account statement for the previous six months).

It is further ORDERED that the Clerk of the Court shall forward to Petitioner a form for filing an application to proceed IFP.

It is finally ORDERED that Petitioner shall show cause within thirty (30) days why his petition for habeas corpus relief should not be dismissed for failure to exhaust his state court remedies. Petitioner is warned his failure to respond to this Court's order may result in his petition being dismissed for want of prosecution or for failure to obey an order of the Court.

SIGNED on August 7, 2015.
